COURT NO.3

Criminal revision no. 51 of 2001
(Old No. 264 of 1987)

Ved Prakash and another ..Revisionists.

Vs.

Sunder Prakash & others ..Respondents

Hon'ble Irshad Hussain J.

None for the revisionists.

Heard Sri Gajendra Pal Singh, A.G.A. for the respondents.

This is a revision against the order dated 7.10.1986 passed by I Judicial Magistrate, Dehradun in criminal case no.1091 of 1986, State Versus Shrawan Kumar and others, under section 452, 332 of the I.P.C.

Having perused the record it is obvious that he revisionists were named in the F.I.R. with specific allegation that they entered into the office with preparation to cause hurt to the employees. After investigation the chargesheet was submitted and considering totality of the circumstances of the case, there appear to be no cogent ground to interfere with the proceedings drawn against the petitioners. The statement of the petitioners were recorded before framing of the charge in the case and the learned Magistrate was on the basis of the material on record fully justified to frame charges against the revisionists under section 452, 332 of the I.P.C. Considering this there is no force in this revision and the same is dismissed.

Interim order dated 12.02.1987, stands vacated. The learned trial Court is directed to proceed against the revisionists in accordance with law.
